

Dear John:

STATINTL

I have received a cable [redacted] stating that the equipment is due to be shipped [redacted] at the end of this month. As soon as I receive confirmation that it has been shipped I will drop you a line.

This equipment will be somewhat different to your present installations and, will therefore, contain different components etc. I am checking with the [redacted] factory to see what is in your equipment and when the information is available would like to submit a recommended spare parts list to you.

STATINTL

Sincerely yours,

[redacted]
